

CARLOS FLORES VIZCARRA
CONSUL GENERAL OF MEXICO IN RALEIGH, NC

The President of Mexico Felipe Calderon appointed Mr. Carlos Flores Vizcarra as the first Consul General of Mexico in the Carolinas in October, 2009.

Prior, he was Consul General of Mexico in Phoenix, AZ from January 2004 to August 2009. Before, he served as Consul of Mexico in Tucson, Az.

In the mid nineties he was elected Federal Congressman, representing the city of Mexico. He served as Secretary of the Foreign Relations Committee. As member of the Mexican Congress he was actively involved in international multilateral tasks, such as the Latin American Parliament and the Economic Commission for Latin America. He acted as Executive Secretary of the Permanent Conference of Latin American Political Parties.

With the Federal Government he has held different positions, in the Secretariat of the Treasury as well as in the Secretariat of Communications and Transportation.

Consul Flores studied at the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM) and he obtained a Masters Degree from the University of Paris III. He has taught at the UNAM and at the University of the Americas, in Mexico City.

He grew up in northwestern Mexico, in Mazatlan, Sinaloa. He is married to Esther Lopez-Negrete Coppel, and have twin sons, Gabriel and Carlos.